CHANGE Y TO I

Name: ..... Date: .....

When a word ends in a consonant plus y, change the y to i before you add -es or -ed: baby becomes babies, carry becomes carried. Write each new word on the line. The last three words end in a vowel plus y, so the rule does not apply to them.

The rule in three steps. 1. Look at the letter in front of the y. 2. If it is a consonant (baby: the b before y), change the y to i and add the ending. 3. If it is a vowel (play: the a before y), change nothing and just add the ending.

1. baby + -es = _____
2. candy + -es = _____
3. city + -es = _____
4. puppy + -es = _____
5. story + -es = _____
6. carry + -ed = _____
7. hurry + -ed = _____
8. cry + -ed = _____
9. dry + -ed = _____
10. copy + -ed = _____

DO NOT CHANGE THESE: VOWEL + Y

11. play + -ed = _____
12. enjoy + -ed = _____
13. stay + -ed = _____

Never change the y before -ing: it is carrying, crying and drying, never "carriing". Two i letters in a row are not allowed.
