SORT: SENTENCE OR FRAGMENT?

Name: ..... Date: .....

Read each group of words in the bank. Copy it into the correct column: a complete sentence has a subject and a verb and makes sense on its own; a fragment is missing something. Short does not mean fragment!

The kettle whistled. · Under the old wooden bridge. · Our cat sleeps in the sunny window. · Hoping to win the raffle. · Snow fell all night. · The girl with the red umbrella. · Since the shop was closed. · We cheered. · Dropped the keys down the drain. · My uncle drives a taxi in the city. · If the river rises any higher. · Three ducks waddled across the road.

Complete sentences	Fragments

FIX TWO FRAGMENTS

Choose two fragments from your right-hand column and rewrite each one as a complete sentence.

1. Fragment:

_____

2. Fragment:

_____

For non-commercial, education use only · page 1 of 2

SORT: SENTENCE OR FRAGMENT? ANSWER KEY

Name: ..... Date: .....

Complete sentences: The kettle whistled., Our cat sleeps in the sunny window., Snow fell all night., We cheered., My uncle drives a taxi in the city., Three ducks waddled across the road.

Fragments: Under the old wooden bridge., Hoping to win the raffle., The girl with the red umbrella., Since the shop was closed., Dropped the keys down the drain., If the river rises any higher.

FIX TWO FRAGMENTS

1. Any complete sentence, e.g. A troll lived under the old wooden bridge.
2. Any complete sentence, e.g. If the river rises any higher, the path will flood.

For non-commercial, education use only