WHICH STYLE IS IT?

1. A river at dawn painted in quick, hazy dabs of violet, pink and gold; you can see every brushstroke. _____
2. A guitar and a bottle broken into flat brown and grey shapes, shown from the front and the side at the same time. _____
3. A giant soup tin painted in bright, flat red and white, exactly like the label in the shop. _____
4. Melting clocks drooping over a dead tree in a desert, painted so carefully it looks like a photograph of a dream. _____
5. Two farm workers bending to pick up stalks in a field, painted plainly with tired faces and worn clothes. _____
6. A park scene made entirely of tiny dots of colour that only join up when you step back. _____
7. A screaming figure on a bridge under a sky of swirling blood-red and orange. _____
8. A huge canvas covered in dripped and flung lines of black, white and silver paint, with no objects at all. _____
9. A comic-book style explosion with thick black outlines, dots of colour and the word "WHAAM!" _____
10. Haystacks in a field painted at different times of day to show how the light changes. _____

YOUR TURN
