ONE SUBJECT, FOUR STYLES

Name: ..... Date: .....

Draw the same subject, an apple on a table, in each box. Follow the prompt for each style. Use colour if you can. Then answer the questions.

THE APPLE, FOUR WAYS

Realism: smooth shading, true colours, a shadow on the table

Impressionism: short dabs of colour, show the light, no hard outlines

Cubism: break it into flat geometric pieces, front and side at once

Pop Art: thick black outline, flat bright colour, repeat it four times

THINK ABOUT IT

Which style was hardest to draw in, and why?

Which apple looks most like a real apple? Which one would you rather have on your wall? Explain.

ONE SUBJECT, FOUR STYLES ANSWER KEY

Name: ..... Date: .....

THE APPLE, FOUR WAYS

Realism: shading and a cast shadow. Impressionism: visible dabs, no outlines. Cubism: geometric facets, several viewpoints. Pop Art: bold outline, flat colour, repetition.

THINK ABOUT IT

1. Open-ended. 2. Open-ended; Realism usually looks most real, but any preference with a reason is acceptable.
