SUBJECT OR OBJECT PRONOUN?

Name: ..... Date: .....

A subject pronoun does the action (I, you, he, she, it, we, they). An object pronoun receives the action (me, you, him, her, it, us, them). Write S or O in the box for each bold pronoun.

1. She ran to the bus. ☐
2. The coach picked him. ☐
3. They are late again. ☐
4. Mom called us for dinner. ☐
5. We won the game. ☐
6. Please help me with this box. ☐
7. I lost my hat. ☐
8. The cat saw them first. ☐
9. He plays the drums. ☐
10. Sara thanked her for the gift. ☐
11. It is raining outside. ☐
12. The dog followed it home. ☐
13. You did very well today. ☐
14. Dad drove you to school. ☐
15. Did they finish the puzzle? ☐
16. The ball hit me on the arm. ☐

Check: a subject pronoun usually comes before the verb; an object pronoun usually comes after the verb or after a word like to, for or with.

For non-commercial, education use only

SUBJECT OR OBJECT PRONOUN?

ANSWER KEY

Name: ..... Date: .....

A subject pronoun does the action (I, you, he, she, it, we, they). An object pronoun receives the action (me, you, him, her, it, us, them). Write S or O in the box for each bold pronoun.

| | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1. | She ran to the bus. | S | 2. | The coach picked him. | O |
| 3. | They are late again. | S | 4. | Mom called us for dinner. | O |
| 5. | We won the game. | S | 6. | Please help me with this box. | O |
| 7. | I lost my hat. | S | 8. | The cat saw them first. | O |
| 9. | He plays the drums. | S | 10. | Sara thanked her for the gift. | O |
| 11. | It is raining outside. | S | 12. | The dog followed it home. | O |
| 13. | You did very well today. | S | 14. | Dad drove you to school. | O |
| 15. | Did they finish the puzzle? | S | 16. | The ball hit me on the arm. | O |

Check: a subject pronoun usually comes before the verb; an object pronoun usually comes after the verb or after a word like to, for or with.

For non-commercial, education use only 