WHICH NOUN DOES THE PRONOUN STAND FOR?

Name: ..... Date: .....

The antecedent is the noun a pronoun stands for. Read each sentence, find the bold pronoun, and write the noun (or nouns) it refers to on the line.

1. Lena lost her keys, but she found them later. she = _____
2. The players cheered when they won. they = _____
3. The puppy wagged its tail. its = _____
4. Mr. Ortiz said he would help. he = _____
5. Grandma baked cookies and gave them to us. them = _____
6. When the bell rang, it was very loud. it = _____
7. Tom and Ali said they were ready. they = _____
8. The girl smiled because her team scored. her = _____
9. My brother and I said we would wash the car. we = _____
10. The teacher told the students their test was on Friday. their = _____

For non-commercial, education use only

WHICH NOUN DOES THE PRONOUN STAND FOR? ANSWER KEY

Name: _____ Date: _____

The antecedent is the noun a pronoun stands for. Read each sentence, find the bold pronoun, and write the noun (or nouns) it refers to on the line.

1. Lena lost her keys, but she found them later. she = Lena
2. The players cheered when they won. they = the players
3. The puppy wagged its tail. its = the puppy
4. Mr. Ortiz said he would help. he = Mr. Ortiz
5. Grandma baked cookies and gave them to us. them = cookies
6. When the bell rang, it was very loud. it = the bell
7. Tom and Ali said they were ready. they = Tom and Ali
8. The girl smiled because her team scored. her = the girl
9. My brother and I said we would wash the car. we = my brother and I
10. The teacher told the students their test was on Friday. their = the students

For non-commercial, education use only