REFLEXIVE PRONOUNS

Name: ..... Date: .....

Reflexive pronouns end in -self or -selves and point back to the subject: "She taught herself." Write the reflexive pronoun that fits each sentence.

WORD BANK myself yourself himself herself itself ourselves yourselves themselves

1. I made this card _____.
2. She taught _____ to swim.
3. The cat cleaned _____ in the sun.
4. We built the fort _____.
5. Did you hurt _____ when you fell?
6. He looked at _____ in the mirror.
7. They enjoyed _____ at the party.
8. You two can help _____ to snacks.
9. The oven turns _____ off after an hour.
10. I told _____ to stay calm.

Watch out: there is no such word as "hisself" or "theirselves". It is himself and themselves.

For non-commercial, education use only

REFLEXIVE PRONOUNS ANSWER KEY

Name: ..... Date: .....

Reflexive pronouns end in -self or -selves and point back to the subject: "She taught herself." Write the reflexive pronoun that fits each sentence.

WORD BANK: myself yourself himself herself itself ourselves yourselves themselves

1. I made this card myself .
2. She taught herself to swim.
3. The cat cleaned itself in the sun.
4. We built the fort ourselves .
5. Did you hurt yourself when you fell?
6. He looked at himself in the mirror.
7. They enjoyed themselves at the party.
8. You two can help yourselves to snacks.
9. The oven turns itself off after an hour.
10. I told myself to stay calm.

Watch out: there is no such word as "hisself" or "theirselves". It is himself and themselves.

For non-commercial, education use only