THE ANT AND THE DOVE

Name: ..... Date: .....

Read the passage carefully. Answer the questions; for the multiple choice, circle one answer. Look back at the text before you decide, and use full sentences for the written answer.

The Ant and the Dove

143 words

One hot day, an ant went down to the river to drink. The bank was steep, and the ant slipped into the water. The current began to carry it away. A dove sat in a tree above the river. She saw the ant struggling. Quickly, she plucked a leaf and let it fall into the water. The ant climbed onto the leaf and floated safely to the shore. Not long after, a hunter crept under the tree. He raised his net to catch the dove. The ant saw what was about to happen. It ran up the hunter's foot and bit him hard on the ankle. The hunter yelped and dropped his net. The dove heard the noise and flew away to safety. The ant and the dove had saved each other. The moral of the fable is: one good turn deserves another.

1. Why did the ant go to the river?

to swim | to drink | to find the dove

2. What did the dove drop into the water?

a stick | a net | a leaf

3. How did the hunter most likely feel when the ant bit him? THINK

surprised and hurt | happy | sleepy

4. In this story, the word "current" means WORD

a gift | the moving water | a kind of bird

5. What does the moral "one good turn deserves another" mean? Use the story in your answer.

THE ANT AND THE DOVE ANSWER KEY

Name: ..... Date: .....

Read the passage carefully. Answer the questions; for the multiple choice, circle one answer. Look back at the text before you decide, and use full sentences for the written answer.

The Ant and the Dove

143 words

One hot day, an ant went down to the river to drink. The bank was steep, and the ant slipped into the water. The current began to carry it away. A dove sat in a tree above the river. She saw the ant struggling. Quickly, she plucked a leaf and let it fall into the water. The ant climbed onto the leaf and floated safely to the shore. Not long after, a hunter crept under the tree. He raised his net to catch the dove. The ant saw what was about to happen. It ran up the hunter's foot and bit him hard on the ankle. The hunter yelped and dropped his net. The dove heard the noise and flew away to safety. The ant and the dove had saved each other. The moral of the fable is: one good turn deserves another.

1. Why did the ant go to the river?

to swim | to drink | to find the dove

2. What did the dove drop into the water?

a stick | a net | a leaf

3. How did the hunter most likely feel when the ant bit him? THINK

surprised and hurt | happy | sleepy

4. In this story, the word "current" means WORD

a gift | the moving water | a kind of bird

5. What does the moral "one good turn deserves another" mean? Use the story in your answer.

If someone helps you, you should help them back: the dove saved the ant, so the ant saved the dove.