Pancake Saturday

124 words

On Saturday, Jonah woke up before anyone else. He decided to make pancakes for his family. First he found the big bowl and the recipe card. He cracked two eggs into the bowl, but a bit of shell fell in. He fished it out with a spoon. Next he added flour and milk and stirred until the lumps were gone. His mom heard the noise and came to help with the hot pan. Jonah poured the batter in small circles. He watched for bubbles, then flipped each pancake. The first one folded in half, but the rest were perfect. Finally he stacked them high, added syrup and called everyone to the table. His dad said they were the best pancakes he had ever eaten.
