SOLID, LIQUID OR GAS?

Name: ..... Date: .....

Part 1: write each material in the correct column. Part 2: write yes or no in each box. Part 3: complete the sentences.

PART 1: SORT THE MATERIALS

ice cube · milk · steam · rock · orange juice · air · wooden spoon · honey · helium in a balloon · coin · rain · oxygen · sand · cooking oil · car exhaust fumes · chalk · vinegar · bubbles of carbon dioxide in lemonade

Solids	Liquids	Gases

PART 2: PROPERTIES (WRITE YES OR NO)

Property	Solid	Liquid	Gas
Keeps its own shape
Flows and can be poured
Has a fixed volume
Can be squashed (compressed) easily
Spreads out to fill its container

PART 3: COMPLETE THE SENTENCES

1. A liquid takes the shape of its _____ but keeps the same _____.
2. Sand can be poured, but each grain keeps its shape, so sand is a _____.

For non-commercial, education use only

SOLID, LIQUID OR GAS? ANSWER KEY

Name: ..... Date: .....

PART 1: SORT THE MATERIALS

Solids: ice cube, rock, wooden spoon, coin, sand, chalk

Liquids: milk, orange juice, honey, rain, cooking oil, vinegar

Gases: steam, air, helium in a balloon, oxygen, car exhaust fumes, bubbles of carbon dioxide in lemonade

PART 2: PROPERTIES (WRITE YES OR NO)

Keeps its own shape | yes | no | no

Flows and can be poured | no | yes | yes

Has a fixed volume | yes | yes | no

Can be squashed (compressed) easily | no | no | yes

Spreads out to fill its container | no | no | yes

PART 3: COMPLETE THE SENTENCES

1. container; volume 2. solid

For non-commercial, education use only