Build your own sentences

Name: _____ Date: _____

Part 1: add a subject to each predicate.
Part 2: add a predicate to each subject.
Part 3: pick any subject and any predicate from the grid to write three funny sentences that make sense grammatically.

PART 1: WHO OR WHAT?

1. _____ galloped across the field.
2. _____ is my favourite subject.
3. _____ melted in the hot sun.
4. _____ were late for the party.

PART 2: WHAT HAPPENED?

1. The astronaut _____
2. My noisy neighbours _____
3. A giant purple dragon _____
4. The chocolate cake _____

PART 3: MIX AND MATCH

Subjects	Predicates
A sleepy dinosaur	ate forty pancakes for breakfast.
The school principal	danced on the roof of the bus.
My pet goldfish	wrote a letter to the queen.
Three robots	sneezed so loudly the windows shook.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

For non-commercial, education use only

Build your own sentences - Answer key

PART 1 (sample answers):

1. The wild horses galloped across the field.
2. Science is my favourite subject.
3. My ice cream melted in the hot sun.
4. The clowns were late for the party.

PART 2 (sample answers):

1. The astronaut floated out of the spaceship.
2. My noisy neighbours played drums until midnight.
3. A giant purple dragon landed on the school roof.
4. The chocolate cake disappeared in five minutes.

PART 3:

Any three sentences using one subject and one predicate from the grid.

For non-commercial, education use only