Pine Lake Camp, July 14

Dear Grandpa,

I have been at camp for five days now, and I finally have time to write. The first night I was homesick, but I don't feel that way anymore.

On Tuesday we learned to paddle a canoe. My partner, Sam, kept steering us in circles until our counselor showed us how to paddle on opposite sides. By the end of the lesson we made it all the way across the lake and back.

On Wednesday it rained so hard that the path to the dining hall turned into a river. We wore trash bags over our clothes and ran through the puddles. Everyone was soaked and laughing.

The best part was last night. We hiked to a clearing and lay on our backs to look at the stars. Our counselor pointed out the Big Dipper, just like you did on the porch last summer. I thought about you the whole time.

Tomorrow we are having a talent show. Sam and I are going to do a card trick. I hope it works!

Please give Biscuit a scratch behind the ears for me. I will see you in nine days.

Love,

Nina

P.S. Can we go canoeing on your lake when I get home?
