WHICH MOVEMENT?

Name: ..... Date: .....

An art movement is a group of artists who worked at the same time in a similar way. Part 1: write each artist from the word bank in the correct column. Part 2: fill in the missing word in each sentence. Part 3: your own opinion, in full sentences.

PART 1: SORT THE ARTISTS

Michelangelo · Claude Monet · Wassily Kandinsky · Salvador Dalí · Leonardo da Vinci · Edgar Degas · Piet Mondrian · René Magritte · Raphael · Pierre-Auguste Renoir · Kazimir Malevich · Joan Miró

Renaissance (1400s-1500s)	Impressionism (1870s on)	Abstract art (1910s on)	Surrealism (1920s on)

PART 2: COMPLETE THE SENTENCES

1. The Renaissance began in the 1400s in _____, where artists studied nature and the human body to make lifelike figures.
2. The Impressionists worked in France and liked to paint _____ to catch the changing light.
3. Abstract artists such as Kandinsky and Mondrian made pictures with no recognisable _____ at all, only colours, lines and shapes.
4. Surrealist paintings look like _____, with strange things placed together in realistic detail.
5. Cubism, invented around 1907 by Pablo Picasso and Georges _____, shows objects from several sides at once.

PART 3: YOUR VIEW

1. Which movement would you most like to paint in, and why?

_____

2. Choose one artist from the word bank and write one fact you know about them.

_____

For non-commercial, education use only

WHICH MOVEMENT? ANSWER KEY

Name: ..... Date: .....

PART 1: SORT THE ARTISTS

Renaissance (1400s-1500s): Michelangelo, Leonardo da Vinci, Raphael

Impressionism (1870s on): Claude Monet, Edgar Degas, Pierre-Auguste Renoir

Abstract art (1910s on): Wassily Kandinsky, Piet Mondrian, Kazimir Malevich

Surrealism (1920s on): Salvador Dalí, René Magritte, Joan Miró

PART 2: COMPLETE THE SENTENCES

1. Italy 2. outdoors 3. objects 4. dreams 5. Braque

PART 3: YOUR VIEW

1. Any reasoned answer.

2. Any correct fact (e.g. Monet painted water lilies at Giverny; Michelangelo painted the Sistine Chapel ceiling).

For non-commercial, education use only