GLUED SENTENCES

Name: _____ Date: _____

Twelve sentences. Each section has its own word bank of four words, and each word is used once. Read the whole sentence before you choose.

ALL, AM AND AN

ham plan tall wall

1. The oak tree by the gate is very _____.
2. We ate _____ and eggs for lunch.
3. Dad made a _____ for the trip.
4. The ball hit the brick _____.

THE -NG FAMILY

rung sang strong wing

5. The bird hurt its left _____.
6. We _____ a song all the way home.
7. My big brother is very _____.
8. I stood on the top _____ of the ladder.

THE -NK FAMILY

blank drank honk skunk

9. The dog _____ all the water in its bowl.
10. My page is still _____.
11. We heard a loud _____ from the truck.
12. A _____ walked past the shed.

After every sentence, read it back out loud with the word in place. If it does not sound right, the word belongs somewhere else in the same section.

For non-commercial, education use only · page 1 of 2

GLUED SENTENCES ANSWER KEY

Name: _____ Date: _____

Twelve sentences. Each section has its own word bank of four words, and each word is used once. Read the whole sentence before you choose.

ALL, AM AND AN

ham plan tall wall

1. The oak tree by the gate is very tall.
2. We ate ham and eggs for lunch.
3. Dad made a plan for the trip.
4. The ball hit the brick wall.

THE -NG FAMILY

rung sang strong wing

5. The bird hurt its left wing.
6. We sang a song all the way home.
7. My big brother is very strong.
8. I stood on the top rung of the ladder.

THE -NK FAMILY

blank drank honk skunk

9. The dog drank all the water in its bowl.
10. My page is still blank.
11. We heard a loud honk from the truck.
12. A skunk walked past the shed.

After every sentence, read it back out loud with the word in place. If it does not sound right, the word belongs somewhere else in the same section.

For non-commercial, education use only