SUBJECTS AND PREDICATES IN A PASSAGE

Name: ..... Date: .....

Read the passage. In each numbered sentence, underline the complete subject once and the complete predicate twice. Then copy both parts into the table.

SATURDAY MARKET

(1) The Saturday market opens at eight o'clock. (2) Farmers from the valley unload crates of apples and pears. (3) A tall man in a striped apron sells honey from his own bees. (4) My little sister always runs straight to the puppet stall. (5) The smell of fresh doughnuts drifts across the square. (6) Two musicians with a fiddle and a drum play beside the fountain. (7) Shoppers with heavy bags rest on the stone steps. (8) By noon the whole square buzzes like a hive.

#	Complete subject	Complete predicate
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8

THINK ABOUT IT

1. Which sentence has the longest complete subject? Write its number and its simple subject (the main noun).

SUBJECTS AND PREDICATES IN A PASSAGE

ANSWER KEY

Name: ..... Date: .....

1 | The Saturday market | opens at eight o'clock

2 | Farmers from the valley | unload crates of apples and pears

3 | A tall man in a striped apron | sells honey from his own bees

4 | My little sister | always runs straight to the puppet stall

5 | The smell of fresh doughnuts | drifts across the square

6 | Two musicians with a fiddle and a drum | play beside the fountain

7 | Shoppers with heavy bags | rest on the stone steps

8 | the whole square | buzzes like a hive ("By noon" is an opening time phrase; accept it with the predicate)

THINK ABOUT IT

1. Sentence 6; musicians

For non-commercial, education use only · page 2 of 2