STORY B: THE TORN KITE

Mila and Ravi had one kite between them, and both grabbed the string at once. Rip! The red paper tore right across. For a minute nobody spoke. Then Ravi fetched the tape and Mila held the edges together. They took turns on the string, and the mended kite flew higher than ever.

STORY C: THE STRAWBERRY THIEF

At ten o'clock a hedgehog waddled out and began to munch. Next day Lily and Grandad built a low fence and left the hedgehog a bowl of water by the hedge instead.
