DEPENDENT CLAUSE FRAGMENTS

Name: ..... Date: .....

A dependent clause starts with a word like because, although, when, if, until, while, since, unless, after or before. It has a subject and a verb but it leaves you waiting, so on its own it is a fragment. Tick S for a complete sentence or F for a fragment.

1.	Although the soup was cold.	S	F
2.	Although the soup was cold, we ate every drop.	S	F
3.	Until the referee blew the whistle.	S	F
4.	The crowd cheered until the referee blew the whistle.	S	F
5.	If you see a shooting star.	S	F
6.	While Grandpa snored in his armchair.	S	F
7.	The cat crept past while Grandpa snored in his armchair.	S	F
8.	Since nobody remembered the tickets.	S	F
9.	We went home early because the rain would not stop.	S	F
10.	Unless the bakery has sold out.	S	F
11.	After the parade ended, the streets were covered in confetti.	S	F
12.	Before the first bell rang.	S	F

JOIN IT TO A MAIN CLAUSE

Finish each dependent clause with a main clause so it becomes a complete sentence. Remember the comma when the dependent clause comes first.

1. If you see a shooting star, _____

_____

2. Since nobody remembered the tickets, _____

_____

3. _____ unless the bakery has sold out.

_____

4. Before the first bell rang, _____

_____

For non-commercial, education use only

DEPENDENT CLAUSE FRAGMENTS ANSWER KEY

Name: ..... Date: .....

1. F 2. S 3. F 4. S 5. F 6. F 7. S 8. F 9. S 10. F 11. S 12. F

JOIN IT TO A MAIN CLAUSE

1. Sample: If you see a shooting star, make a wish quickly.
2. Sample: Since nobody remembered the tickets, we watched the match from the hill.
3. Sample: We will have cinnamon buns for breakfast unless the bakery has sold out.
4. Sample: Before the first bell rang, the playground was already full.

For non-commercial, education use only