HAS, HAVE, HAD, WILL OR WOULD?

Name: ..... Date: .....

Read the rules. Then circle the helping verb that fits each sentence. Look at the subject (one or more than one) and the time clue.

THE RULES

HAS (one) / HAVE (I, you, we, they, more than one): started before now and still matters. HAD: happened before another past event.

WILL: the future. WOULD: imagined things, polite requests, or what used to happen ("Dad WOULD read to me").

1. Grandad _____ lived in the same house for forty years.
   a) has b) have
2. The twins _____ already opened their presents.
   a) has b) have
3. By the time the bus came, we _____ waited twenty minutes.
   a) have b) had
4. Next week the dentist _____ check my teeth.
   a) will b) would
5. If it snowed tonight, school _____ probably close.
   a) will b) would
6. I _____ never seen such a tall building.
   a) has b) have
7. The kettle _____ boiled, so pour the tea.
   a) has b) had
8. Mia said she _____ bring the cake on Friday.
   a) will b) would
9. Before the film started, Leo _____ eaten all the popcorn.
   a) has b) had
10. Someday I _____ travel to the moon.
    a) will b) would
11. Our neighbours _____ painted their fence blue.
    a) has b) have
12. She _____ already left when I phoned.
    a) has b) had
13. Tomorrow the sun _____ rise at six.
    a) will b) would
14. When we were little, Dad _____ read to us every night.
    a) will b) would

For non-commercial, education use only

HAS, HAVE, HAD, WILL OR WOULD? ANSWER KEY

Name: ..... Date: .....

1. a) has 2. b) have 3. b) had 4. a) will 5. b) would 6. b) have 7. a) has 8. b) would 9. b) had 10. a) will 11. b) have 12. b) had 13. a) will 14. b) would