LARGE SOUND BOXES

Name: ..... Date: .....

The same task with boxes 30 mm wide, for a child who finds small boxes hard to write in. A thick pencil, a crayon or letter tiles all work at this size.

hen

lid

pot

bun

rag

If writing is the hard part rather than hearing the sounds, let the child say the sounds and point while an adult writes, or use cut-out letters. The skill being practiced is splitting the word up, not handwriting.
