HARDER HEART WORDS

Name: ..... Date: .....

Eight harder heart words. Map each one sound by sound and heart the surprising boxes. Then split the word into syllables with a slash in the third column: clap it to find the break. Words of one syllable are written again whole.

WORD	ONE SOUND IN EACH BOX	SYLLABLES	WHAT TO NOTICE
enough		.....	.....
through		.....	.....
thought		.....	.....
early		.....	.....
island		.....	.....
answer		.....	.....
busy		.....	.....
women		.....	.....

THE SPELLING VOICE

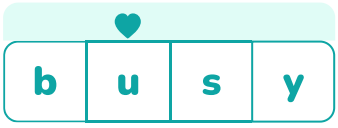

For a long heart word, say it once in a silly "spelling voice" that pronounces every letter: is-land, an-sw-er, wo-men, bus-y. Saying the silent letters out loud gives the hand something to remember. Say it normally again straight after so the real pronunciation is the last thing heard.

For non-commercial, education use only

HARDER HEART WORDS ANSWER KEY

Name: ..... Date: .....

Eight harder heart words. Map each one sound by sound and heart the surprising boxes. Then split the word into syllables with a slash in the third column: clap it to find the break. Words of one syllable are written again whole.

WORD	ONE SOUND IN EACH BOX	SYLLABLES	WHAT TO NOTICE
enough		e / nough	three hearts: e, ou and gh through		through	four letters, one sound
thought		thought	the same four letters say /aw/ here
early		ear / ly	ear says /er/, not /eer/
island		is / land	the s is silent
answer		an / swer	the w is silent busy		bu / sy	u says short i
women		wo / men	o says short i

THE SPELLING VOICE

For a long heart word, say it once in a silly "spelling voice" that pronounces every letter: is-land, an-sw-er, wo-men, bus-y. Saying the silent letters out loud gives the hand something to remember. Say it normally again straight after so the real pronunciation is the last thing heard.

For non-commercial, education use only · page 2 of 2