COMPLETE SUBJECT AND COMPLETE PREDICATE

Name: ..... Date: .....

The complete subject is every word that tells who or what the sentence is about. The complete predicate is every other word: what the subject does or is. Split each sentence into its two parts in the table.

Sentence	Complete subject	Complete predicate
1. The little red hen pecked at the corn.
2. My aunt from Ireland sent me a postcard.
3. A shiny silver coin rolled under the sofa.
4. The boys on the swings laughed loudly.
5. Our old wooden boat leaks a little.
6. The bakery on Main Street sells warm pretzels.
7. Two excited puppies tumbled out of the basket.
8. The queen of the ants marched out of the nest.
9. Everyone on the bus sang the same song.
10. The last piece of cake vanished from the plate.

YOUR TURN

1. Write a sentence with a complete subject of at least four words:

_____

2. Write a sentence with a complete predicate of at least five words:

_____

For non-commercial, education use only

COMPLETE SUBJECT AND COMPLETE PREDICATE ANSWER KEY

Name: ..... Date: .....

1 | The little red hen | pecked at the corn

2 | My aunt from Ireland | sent me a postcard

3 | A shiny silver coin | rolled under the sofa

4 | The boys on the swings | laughed loudly

5 | Our old wooden boat | leaks a little

6 | The bakery on Main Street | sells warm pretzels

7 | Two excited puppies | tumbled out of the basket

8 | The queen of the ants | marched out of the nest

9 | Everyone on the bus | sang the same song

10 | The last piece of cake | vanished from the plate

YOUR TURN

1. Sample: The tired old dog next door | sleeps on the step.

2. Sample: My sister | painted the fence bright green on Sunday.

For non-commercial, education use only · page 2 of 2