WRITE THE MISSING PART

Name: ..... Date: .....

Part 1: each group of words is missing one part. Tick Subject if it does not say who or what; tick Predicate if it does not say what happens. Part 2: write the missing part to make a complete sentence.

PART 1: WHICH PART IS MISSING?

1.	Barked at the moon all night.	Subject	Predicate
2.	The tallest girl in our class.	Subject	Predicate
3.	Flew over the rooftops.	Subject	Predicate
4.	A bowl of steaming noodles.	Subject	Predicate
5.	Melted all over the car seat.	Subject	Predicate
6.	My grandfather's noisy old tractor.	Subject	Predicate
7.	Danced in the puddles after the storm.	Subject	Predicate
8.	The twins next door.	Subject	Predicate
9.	Crashed into the goalpost.	Subject	Predicate
10.	A box of broken crayons.	Subject	Predicate

PART 2: WRITE THE MISSING PART

1. _____ barked at the moon all night.

2. The tallest girl in our class _____

3. _____ melted all over the car seat.

4. My grandfather's noisy old tractor _____

5. A box of broken crayons _____

WRITE THE MISSING PART ANSWER KEY

Name: ..... Date: .....

PART 1: WHICH PART IS MISSING?

1. Subject 2. Predicate 3. Subject 4. Predicate 5. Subject 6. Predicate 7. Subject 8. Predicate 9. Subject 10. Predicate

PART 2: WRITE THE MISSING PART

1. Sample: The neighbour's dog barked at the moon all night.
2. Sample: The tallest girl in our class plays basketball every Saturday.
3. Sample: My ice lolly melted all over the car seat.
4. Sample: My grandfather's noisy old tractor rumbles across the field each morning.
5. Sample: A box of broken crayons sat forgotten under the bed.

For non-commercial, education use only