CALM-DOWN CORNER CHECKLIST

Name: _____ Date: _____

A calm-down corner is a small, cozy spot where a child goes to settle a big feeling. Check off what you have gathered on the left, go over the rules on the right, then write your own rule and give the corner a name.

WHAT TO PUT IN IT

- [ ] Soft place to sit cushion, beanbag or small rug
- [ ] Feelings chart
  from this set, at child height
- [ ] Strategy cards
  in a jar or on a ring
- [ ] Squeeze ball or fidget
  something safe to squeeze
- [ ] Sand timer
  2 to 5 minutes
- [ ] Paper and crayons
  to draw the feeling
- [ ] Two or three calm books
  swap them monthly
- [ ] Headphones
  for calm music or just quiet
- [ ] Blanket or stuffed animal for heavy, cozy comfort
- [ ] Small mirror
  to see your own face
- [ ] Breathing exercises card
  from this set
- [ ] A sign for the corner
  the children can make it

CORNER RULES

1. Anyone can choose to go to the corner when they need it.
2. One person at a time.
3. It is a place to calm down, not a punishment or a time-out.
4. Quiet voices and gentle hands.
5. Stay as long as you need, then come back ready.
6. Leave the corner tidy for the next person.
7. _____

HOW WE USE IT

- [ ] We practiced going there when calm
- [ ] Everyone knows the signal to ask for it
- [ ] A grown-up checks in after a few minutes
- [ ] We talk about what happened afterward

OUR CORNER

Its name: _____

Where it is: _____

We set it up on: _____

draw a picture of your calm-down corner

For non-commercial, education use only