FLOSS DICTATION

Name: ..... Date: .....

An adult reads each sentence twice. Say it back, then write it. Use two lines if you need them.

For the adult: the eight sentences are printed on page 2. Read one sentence at a normal speed, then again slowly. Let the child repeat it before writing. Every sentence holds at least one FLOSS word. Mark only the FLOSS words, and have the child underline the double letter in each one.

FLOSS DICTATION ANSWER KEY

Name: ..... Date: .....

Read these to the child. The FLOSS words are marked; there are ten of them in all, counting grass, glass and class.

1. The bell will ring at ten.
2. I can smell the fresh grass.
3. A ship sits by the cliff.
4. Dad will fill my glass with milk.
5. The bees buzz by the shed.
6. I spilled jam on my dress.
7. Do not toss that ball in class.
8. The pup has soft fluff on its back.

Sentence 2 also holds grass, sentence 4 holds glass and sentence 7 holds class. If the child misses a double letter, go back to the three checks: one syllable, one short vowel, ends in f, l, s or z.
