THE GIFT THAT COST NOTHING

Name: ..... Date: .....

Read the passage carefully. Circle one answer for each multiple choice question, and write full sentences for the others. Look back at the text before you decide.

The Gift That Cost Nothing

156 words

Rosa wanted to give her grandmother a present, but her jar held only two dollars and a button. Her brother said, "Then make something." Rosa thought about what Grandma liked. Grandma liked stories. She liked the old photos in the hall. And she always said she wished she could remember things better. So Rosa took a notebook from her desk and wrote on the cover: "Grandma's Book." Inside, she wrote down every story Grandma had ever told her. The one about the goat that ate a hat. The one about the flood, when the family slept on the roof. She drew pictures to go with them. It took her nine evenings. On Christmas morning, Grandma opened the notebook slowly. She read the first page and laughed. She read the second page and wiped her eyes. "This," she said, "is the best gift I have ever been given. It cost you nothing, and it cost you everything."

1. What did Rosa have in her jar?

two dollars and a button | ten dollars | nothing at all

2. What did Rosa write in the notebook?

a shopping list | the stories Grandma had told her | her homework

3. In this story, "wiped her eyes" shows that Grandma was WORD

angry | moved and a little tearful | sleepy

4. How long did the gift take Rosa to make?

_____

_____

5. Why do you think Grandma said the gift "cost you everything"? THINK

_____

_____

_____

THE GIFT THAT COST NOTHING

ANSWER KEY

Name: ..... Date: .....

Read the passage carefully. Circle one answer for each multiple choice question, and write full sentences for the others. Look back at the text before you decide.

The Gift That Cost Nothing

156 words

Rosa wanted to give her grandmother a present, but her jar held only two dollars and a button. Her brother said, "Then make something." Rosa thought about what Grandma liked. Grandma liked stories. She liked the old photos in the hall. And she always said she wished she could remember things better. So Rosa took a notebook from her desk and wrote on the cover: "Grandma's Book." Inside, she wrote down every story Grandma had ever told her. The one about the goat that ate a hat. The one about the flood, when the family slept on the roof. She drew pictures to go with them. It took her nine evenings. On Christmas morning, Grandma opened the notebook slowly. She read the first page and laughed. She read the second page and wiped her eyes. "This," she said, "is the best gift I have ever been given. It cost you nothing, and it cost you everything."

1. What did Rosa have in her jar?

two dollars and a button | ten dollars | nothing at all

2. What did Rosa write in the notebook?

a shopping list | the stories Grandma had told her | her homework

3. In this story, "wiped her eyes" shows that Grandma was WORD

angry | moved and a little tearful | sleepy

4. How long did the gift take Rosa to make?

Nine evenings.

5. Why do you think Grandma said the gift "cost you everything"? THINK

It cost Rosa a lot of time, care and effort, which is worth more than money.